

Headline Comedy Show

COMEDY VENTRILOQUIST TOM CROWL

Customized comedy, razor-sharp lightning-fast improvisation and total audience participation all meld together to entertain and energize your group.

Tom Crowl packs more laughs per minute than a stand-up comedian!

Guests will be rolling in the aisles and laughing so hard they'll wipe tears from their eyes.

Inanimate objects spring to life with more personality than you'd ever anticipate!

It's just this type of unexpected twist that makes Tom's act so captivating & intriguing – uniting audiences, providing a welcome escape and building incredible connections among colleagues.

You might find a tennis ball deliberating on the finer points of public speaking, or a duck interacting with attendees while weaving tales of his marvelous adventures with your own co-workers. From the audience emerge hysterically masked human puppets – and what comes next will leave your audience bent over in hilarity.

"...an uproariously funny ending... a very entertaining evening." – Ray M., National Association of Postal Supervisors

"...customized the act to our group... It was perfect!" - Wendy M, Keystone Asset Management, PA

"Sometimes my crowd is hard to please, but they were blown away with Tom's performance." - Karen F, Jerr-Dan Corporation, PA